Ever midday a splendid lunch menu or brunch is prepared and served by the crew, who will also be looking after you throughout the cruise. The barge passes by Lake Kir, then Plombières les Dijon and Velars sur Ouche. If you're not a connoisseur of grand Burgundy wines and specialties, as the barge continues to advance, you will soon become one. The barge has a snail like pace and the tempo is set by the canal locks, in the late afternoon the barge moors in the village of Fleurey sur Ouche. From there, late in the afternoon, your travel guide will take on an excursion in the surroundings. Back on board you will enjoy again a typical French dinner and the conversation with the other passengers.

The scenery and life along side the canal will seduce you. Tonight the barge is moored in a hidden romantic spot, beside the river Ouche and a Gallo Romain bridge, one of the most photographed and painted views in the village of Gissey sur Ouche. This is also the starting point of your daily sight seeing tour to get to know this wonderful region and its habitants. At the evening the traditional farewell party -which sometimes develops into a real midnight champagne pool party- is an ideal opportunity to say good bye to the passengers who only booked a Mini-Cruise from Friday to Monday.

Walk into this medieval village with its cafes, antique and curiosity shops along the picturesque streets and it's bistro bars which invite to settle in a drink in the hand. There is also a fantastic view over the Auxois plains, with lakes and the distant Morvan hills. Back on board enjoy the typical French dinner.

Your captain will work even harder today, passing all the locks between Pont d'Ouche and the final destination of Vandenesse. A wonderful opportunity to enjoy the countryside, relax on the sun-deck, walk or cycle ahead. In the surroundings of Crugey you will have a Burgundy Menu for lunch break. After the barge has arrived in the port of Vandenesse, it is up to you to decide the destination of today's excursion: the water château of Commarin, the tunnel entrance in Pouilly-en-Auxois or a nearby cheese dairy. However, sometimes we organize the petanque championship between the passengers and the crew. Beginning with cocktails on board, you can learn the art of "Sabrage", where you slash open a Champagne bottle with a sword, like the Dukes of Burgundy did hundreds of years ago.
